SUNDAY, August 17, 1878. }
Among the notable features of the past week prominent place is occupied by gold. The Gold national banks have been taught the proprieties the aid of the Comptroller of the Treasury has been valuly invoked to punish imaginary unancial misdeeds; speculators have been denounced with the most excommunicative of adjectives, and discredit has been sought to be fastened upon well known firms and institutions, until the street actually bedeved the millennium of paper currency was at hand, and went "snort" of gold with a looseness that was curious to behold. All this because of

THE POSSIBLE "LOCKUP"

of a few millions of the triding sum of coin which to-day represents the inverted apex of the enorommentary on the weakness and artificiality of he situation when one, two or a dozen men can thus seize the reins of financial power and at will affright the multitude; and it affords the best aras been so often urged in these columns-to wit, an accumulation of specie in the Treasury vaults sufficient, first, to inspire more confidence than waits upon the present beggarly account of daily "Treasury balances," and, second,
TO PREVENT BLACK PRIDAYS

to boundaries not inconsistent with the welfare of general trade. The disturbance of the past week only demonstrated the power of the operators in gold that has been so much discredited and dis-believed. The Secretary of the Treasury on Thursday made his usual offer of $1,500,000. Contrary to expectation, it was not purchased by the so-called "clique." Immediately word went forth that its back was broken. The price began to recede. It touched 14%. Many of the smaller operators sold out their long gold, and the opposite interest increased by sales for the bear account. Within twenty-lour hours thereafter entered the Gold Board and purchased, as is variously estimated, from eight to ten millions. The price revounded almost magicalty, and when the market closed on Saturday it was firm at 115%. Such is a resume of the manipulations of the last three days. Whether the price will continue on the ascending scale during the ensuing weekwhether the demand for gold on account of customs for the next thirty days and the large falling off in the excess over the legal reserve of the banks will suffice to maintain he existing strength are questions to be deter bilities of a successful speculation within reasonable bounds are not so much at a discount as they shown by the following table:-

per cent to flat.

THE BANK STATEMENT. by the statement published yesterday. Owing to large payments into the Treasury on customs ac count the decrease in specie amounts to $2,175,900. To the demand that has set in from the country banks may be partially ascribed a loss in legal tenders of $1,462,200, although other influences have doubtin the excess over the legal reserve is the differ ence between $12,735,650, reported on the 0th of August, and $9,644,200, reported yesterday—to wit, $3,071,450. During this period loans have expanded $1,856,900. The percentage of reserve to habilities of the national banks is 29.07; that of the State banks 25.99, the average being 28.69. In this conection we take occasion to answer the inquiry of a correspondent why a bank statement is pronounced "unfavorable" when it shows an excess of $9,000,000 over and above the 25 per cent legal reserve. The word 'unfavorable" is only used comparatively. Last week, for instance, the excess was $12,700,000; on the 2d of August it was $13,800,000; on the 28th of July it was $14,620,000, and on the 12th of July $16,435,000. Since the last-named date, therefore, there has been a reduction on the excess of retion of affairs which, when it is remembered that the excess is always a sign of strength, clearly a few weeks ago, the statement of yesterday is un-questionably "unfavorable," and will continue to the minimum fixed by law, which is the lowest point tolerated by the government as the basis upon which they can do a legal business. The fol lowing is a comparison of the totals for the past two weeks:-

THE POREIGN MARKET.

The foreign market during the past week has shown much strength and steadiness, especially in United States bonds, for which the demand here supply. The prices yesterday were a little easier but it is safe to predict a reaction, as there are no immediate disturbing influences likely to ecour, and the confidence in American bonds has been gradually increasing. Eric closed at 47, ten-forties at 90 and five-twenties at 94%.

THE MONEY WARKET

closed easy, with abundant offerings at 2% a 3 per cent. Exceptional transactions were made on call loans early in the week at 5 per cent; but this high rate quickly served to attract additional capi-tal to the street, and the result was exemplified exchanges were dull and depressed. The closing rates for actual business were 108% a 108% for bankers' sixty day sterling and 109% for sight.

THE STOCK MARKET.

The very erratic course of fluctuations in various stocks during the past week illustrate the unset-tied condition of the market and the necessity of the presence of both leaders and business to keep it at the level which it had attained in the earlier stage of the Summer speculation. It was apparent that strong "bear" inductoes were exerting their power with more or less of success, and but for the strength of certain stocks, which seem to have acquired the confidence of the community and resisted a fair amount of pounding, it is by no means certain that the decline would not have been greater than is recorded. The existence of

if not of feverishness, was manifest, and hence the dealings were comparatively moderate. This feeling was somewhat aided late in the week by the sudden turn in gold and the development of much more stability and power on the part of those who are speculating in the same than they have been credited with. The adroitness of their operations, the mystery that surrounds their movements and the fear that at any moment they may "draw their net" and catch unprepared dealers in stock, have caused conservatism among all who are at work in mere "fancies." Nothing, however, seems to point to a "squeeze" in the near future; natural tide of commercial events belonging to the Fall are such as to be successfully combined with the artificial influences under the command of these large holders of dollars that are good the world over—of the only security that pays interest and customs, and, to a considerable extent, the balance of trade against us—we say it would be unsafe to argue that in such a juncture it would not be well to "stand from under."

THE BEST SUSTAINED STOCKS of the week were New York Central, Lake Shore, Western Union, Harlem, Panama and C., C. and I. C., each, however, being more or less the subject but recovered to 105%. Western Union receded from 92% to 91%, rallying to 92, but at the close selling at 91%. Harlem ranged between 131% a 182%. Pacific Mail was eccentric, going from 40% to 42 a 33%, a 41%, a 40%, a 40%, a 40%, a 30%. Panama sold at 114 a 11614, with late dealings at 115% a 115. Lake Shore declined from 95 to 93%, advanced to 94% and subsequently sold at 93% a 93%. St. Paul was weak in consequence of the non-declaration of the usual semi-annual dividend. Northwest common sympathized with the general course of the market; opened at 68, touched its lowest point at 65%, but sold at the close at 66%. C., C. and I. C. was firm at 82% a 32, at 31% a 32.

During the latter part of the week it was bruited that the directors of the Panama Railroad Company had consented to make a loan of money to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and take a mortgage or bill of sale as security therefor upon the best of its steamships. This appears to have provoked the opposition of some of the leading stockholders of Panama, and accordingly on Saturday a formal protest was prepared against such a course of action, together with a notice to be legally served upon the directors that the latter will be held to strict accountability for any loss that may result. Among the chief reasons given by the stockholders for their protest are :- First, that the nature of the property makes it unsafe to loan money thereon, the present financial condition of ompany rendering it morally certain that sooner or later it will go into bankruptcy, and no money which it can borrow will afford permanent relief; second, that the company has already shown its inherent weakness by recently requiring an advance from some of its own officers in order to save the concern from protest—a sign that it has no money of its own in the treasury; third, that while the company is the owner of about thirty-six steamships, many of this number are not only lying idle and depreciating in value from non-use, but are absolutely incapable of earning their own expenses; fourth, that the sum of about five hundred thousand dollars will be due to Messrs. Roche & Co., the builders, early in September, to payment of which cannot be long delayed, and that no assets exist available for immediate relief; fith, that the subsidy has been entirely pledged for moneys due, and it is a question of grave doubt whether the same will be continued in view of the general belief that $500,000 has been corruptly ex-pended to procure legislation; sixth, that some pended to procure legislation; sixth, that some of the directors are speculating on their knowledge of the weakness of the company and employing agencies for their personal aggrandizement similar to those which redected so seriously upon the former Board; seventh, and finally, that, taking all these facts into consideration, the funds of Panama being now secured against all possible loss, it would be a gross violation of trust to make the loan suggested, and would render the directors liable for all the damages that may be sustained.
As before stated, the foregoing document is to be signed and served to-morrow, and it remains to be seen what action will follow at the regular meeting of the Panama Board on Tuesday.

SATURDAY, August 16 - 5 P. M.
The trade movement was more active during the last week and the aggregate business was very much larger than for any one week for some time. In breadstuffs there was a decidedly active move.

In breadstuffs there was a decidedly active movement, particularly in lots to arrive, in which a large business was done at advanced prices. This was especially the case with wheat. There were were quiet and steady, with light dealings, it likewise sales of corn at full figures.

The scarcity of freight room was still a hindrance to a free movement, present and prospective, while vessels for charter were also scarce, and rates ruled very high.

and rates ruled very high.

Hardware, dry goods, &c. were fairly active—sales increasing with almost every successive day. On Change, Saturday—Flour was in moderately fair demand, and steady. Wheat was less active, and closed with parties apart, but there was no decided change in prices. Corn was firm, but only in light request. Oats were quiet, but about steady. Cotton was quiet, and the market irregular. Pork was the turn dearer, while lard ruled quiet and about steady. Groceries were quiet, but the market firm for all descriptions. Petroleum was dull and not materially changed in value. Spirits turpentine was dull and nominally easier, while roain remained steady. Whiskey was quiet but decidedly higher.

Two Burglars Captured in Duane Street. On Saturday afternoon, at about two o'clock, the premises occupied by R. Lewis as a manufactory of open. Jacob Webster, who occupies the fourth floor, who had been absent for some time, on returning found the premises of Mr. Lewis open, and on making a search discovered that a lot of articles had been stolen and that a still larger quantity had been packed up in black bags ready for removal. He at once notified Officers Labey and Curley, of the Sixth precinct, who set about Curley, of the Sixth precinct, who set about watching the premises in expectation of the return of the burgiars. At five o'clock a horse and wagen drove up to the door containing three men, one of whom, named Thomas Magure, entered the building and was arrested on the stairs. Another named Thomas Murray, on seeing the officers, ran down Duane street. He was pursued by Mr. Webster and Officer Curley and was overtaken in Pearl street. The third man, whose name is not known, drove off at a rapid pace, and succeeded in escaping. Maguire, alias Daniel Leary, and Murray are both well known to the downtown police as members of the knowselt street gang. The store of Mr. Lewis has already been broken open three times within a year, and each time the thieves have been successful in carrying off large quantities of goods. The prisoners were taken before Juatice Soott, at the Tembs Police Court, yesterday, and remanded to the station house to enable the officer to work up the case. They are to be taken to the Central Office to-day.

YORKVILLE POLICE COURT.

Serious Stabbing Affray. William Purdy and Joseph Brennan were ar-raigned by officer Hicinbothem, of the Twenty-second precinct, who testified that one James Brown, now confined to his bed, had been seriously cut by Purdy, while the other beat him. Both were held to await Brown's injuries. An Attempt to Stab an Officer. Hugh McGuire, a resident of the Twenty-first ward, was charged by officer Phelps, of that precinct, with an attempt to cut him with a knife. Held for trial. On complaint of Mrs. McGuire for assault and battery, he was held in $300 ball.

Robbery by an Express Driver. On the 14th inst. Mr. Robert E. Walsh, of 167 Renry street, entrusted two trunks, the contents of which were worth $757, to William J. Gaffney, an expressman, of 135 East Twenty-pinth street, to be delivered at his residence the following morning. Mr. Gaffaey gave the order to his driver, John H. West, the same evening. During the night West, it is alleged, robbed both trunks, and was arrested in the Satteenth ward by Officer Warner while in the act of entering a pawn shop to dispose of what he had left of the stolen property. He admitted the robbery on being arraigned at the above Court, and gave information to Officer Failon, of the Twenty-first precinct, which enabled that officer to recover the whole of the goods. West was vester-Twenty-first precinct, which enabled that officer to recover the whole of the goods. West was yester day held for trial by Justice Coulter.

BROOKLYN AFFAIRS.

The Coronel was notified yesterday to hold an inquest over the body of James Cummins, twentyone years of age, who was run over by one of the De Kalb avenue cars, on Washington street, on Friday night. He died at the city Hospital on Saturday night.

Felonious Assault.

Samuel Salt, a young man, residing corner Walon and Harrison streets, was struck on the head and knocked senseless on Saturday evening, while in Broadway, near Cooper avenue, by some un-known ruffian. He was conveyed to the station house, where the wound, which is not of a fatal character, was dressed.

During last week letters of administration were granted on the estates of the following named deceased persons, viz:—Edward E. Sloman, Rosewell Graves, Charles Eckert, Philip Coyle, John P. Strokhacker, and Jacob Delmuth, all of the city of Brooklyn. Letters of guardianship of the person and estate of Ellen Clark were granted to Ann Callahan, of Edgar Chambers and Estelle Chambers to Forman T. Chambers, all of the city of Brooklyn.

Found Dead in a Cell.

The doorman of the Ninth precinct station house on making his accustomed tour of the cell corri-dors, between five and six o'clock yesterday morning, was shocked to find one of the iron-grated apartments, allotted to inebriated prisoners, occupled by the dead body of Walter Loomis. Deceased, who was arrested the night previous by Officer who was arristed the light previous by Officer Beecher, on a charge of vagrancy and intoxication, was thirty-six years of age, a carpenter by trade, was married and a nauve of New York. He had been drinking bad whiskey in a reckless manner for some time past, and his sudden death in the prison cell is attributed to his love for the poisoned lowl. The Coroner was notified to hold an inquest over the remains.

The Reform Association.

The Citizens' Reform Association leaders bave promulgated a call for a meeting to be held on the first Monday of September. The chief question to be discussed will be the policy of increasing the dred and fifty, so as to accord representation to dred and fifty, so as to accord representation to each ward in the city. There is a division of opinion upon this subject and extended debate, for which the reformers' organization is proverbial, will be had before any agreement can possibly be arrived at. A few members of the "old hundred" have resigned from the organization, not approving of their past polley in certain respects. The majority of the Association is largely remainen, and therefore in sympathy with the officials now in power in Kings county.

THE JERSEY BOULEVARD.

At the latest meeting of the Hudson County Boulevard Commissioners several communications were read from various citizens, urging sundry minor changes in the proposed route. The Com-missioners will proceed to consider those suggestions, inasmuch as the recent write of oertiorari does not restrain them from perform-gestions, insulate as the recent write of ceritorari does not restrain them from performing any acts except selling bonds. As has always been observed at the inauguration of great public improvements, there is a strong opposition to the construction of the avenue. The great mass of the property owners throughout the county, however, acem to think that the whole county will be benefited far in excess of the amount expended on the Boulevard, if the proper route be taken.

THE KOST IMPORTANT CHANGE in the route is, perhaps, that proposed by Mr. Otto Kohler, of Guttenberg, who achieved such brilliant victories a few years ago over the Weenawken Ferry Company and other local rings. He suggests that the Boulevard be run along the eastern edge of the hill in Gnitenberg, and that a stone bridge be constructed from the place where the hill just in to the spot where it juts out again. This bridge and the vicinity would command a view of New York, Brooklyn, Williamsburg, &c., and overlook the Bay as far as "the Narrows." A little further on the Hackensack River and the bordering districts are visible. Such a change would contribute much to the beauty of the Boulevard, and cannot fail to receive due consideration at the Commissioners' hands. The meetings of the Commissioners take place weekly as usual.
